

A close-up photograph of a chef's hand garnishing a plate of food. The chef is holding a small sprig of fresh rosemary, about to place it on a large, dark, seared steak. The steak is on a white rectangular plate and is surrounded by various roasted vegetables, including yellow squash, zucchini, and red bell peppers. The background is blurred, showing a white chef's coat. The text "ROOM SERVICE MENU" is overlaid in the center of the image.
